

What We Offer:

- Comprehensive diagnostic assessment for children with symptoms of anxiety, OCD, hair pulling disorder, or tic disorders (e.g., Tourette's syndrome).
- Treatment recommendations following the assessment
- If eligible, cognitive-behavior therapy

Pediatric Anxiety Research Clinic (PARC)

CALL
(330) 672-2200

Dr. Christopher A. Flessner
(Director)

Kent State University
Department of Psychological Sciences
Kent Hall
Kent, OH 44242

Is your child anxious?

Does he have to do things over and over again?

Does she pull out her hair?

If you said "Yes" to any of these questions:

Call the Pediatric
Anxiety Research Clinic (PARC) at:

(330) 672- 2200

Kent State University
Kent, OH

The Pediatric Anxiety Research Clinic (PARC) offers assessment and treatment services to children between 4 and 17 years of age experiencing anxiety and/or related problems.

Families interested in learning more about the type(s) of services we provide should call us at (330) 672-2200.

Services* Offered at the PARC Clinic:

Cognitive Behavior Therapy for children and adolescents experiencing a variety of related concerns including:

- Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder (OCD)
- Separation Anxiety
- Generalized Anxiety
- Social Phobia
- Hair Pulling Disorder (Trichotillomania)
- Tourette's Syndrome & other Tic Disorders

* Obtaining these services depends upon therapist availability and the length of our wait-list.

Contact Information:

If you think that your child may be anxious or suffer from related problems, please call the

Pediatric Anxiety Research Clinic (PARC) at:

(330) 672-2200

